MEMORANDUM FOR: Chief, Contract Personnel Division

SUBJECT: Ten Ways for Improving CIA's Personnel Management

REFERENCE: Memo for DCI from D/Pers, 18 April 1955, subject as above.

1. Please review Point 6 of subject memorandum and especially our statement of Future Plans. I have talked with [REDACTED] on this, and he is willing to consider any proposal we might wish to make. I told him we would take a position and communicate it to him. By "taking a position" I meant that we would estimate the number of people required to perform the functions indicated and asked for a Management review of the desirability of such manpower usage.

2. Will you please study this and come up with a proposal which you feel will be responsive to the IG's suggestion.
